TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Kincrome being the market leader in distribution of hand tools requires committed, efficient, honest and punctual business partners enabling the Company to remain at the top in a competitive environment. Total Transport & Logistics has proved to possess all of these capabilities. Total Transport & Logistics is highly committed to delivering exemplary standards to all the tasks that they undertake.

As a result of Total Transport & Logistics' business ethics, Kincrome's costs in freight movements have been reduced considerably. Total Transport & Logistics' professional skills and ability to initiate and implement successful new systems within the warehouse operations have enabled Kincrome staff better understanding and greater controls for all freight movements for Kincrome on a National basis.

I have no doubt that Total Transport & Logistics will be an asset to any business looking for personalized attention to detail in service, furthermore reducing costs in a difficult economic environment.

In summary I have no hesitation in recommending Total Transport & Logistics to any company looking to form a strong business relationship.

I am available for further discussions by telephone on 03 9518 8300.
